Education insurance summary of cover

Introduction

Our Education insurance policy has been designed to meet the demands and needs of those wishing to insure the risks associated with the running of a registered educational establishment.

This document provides only a summary of the main benefits of the Education insurance policy. An outline of the policy's significant features and benefits are set out below together with any significant exclusions, limitations and obligations you may have. For full details of all policy benefits and terms you should read the policy. A policy document is available by contacting us or your broker.

The policy is divided into a number of sections but not all the sections may be operative as part of your insurance.

Please refer to your quotation or renewal documentation for confirmation of the sections of cover selected.

Things for you to think about

Please note this summary relates to our standard policy cover, if you feel you have specific needs or requirements outside of this we would be happy to consider your request. Please contact us or your broker.

Important information

This policy is underwritten by

Ecclesiastical Insurance Office plc. The legal expenses section is arranged through ARAG Legal Protection Limited (ARAG).

Duration of your policy

Generally 12 months from the start date shown on your policy schedule.

Renewal of your policy

We will send you notice that your policy is approaching renewal before it is due. Your requirements may change over time, therefore please contact us or your broker if you wish to discuss your needs or any additional insurance requirements.

How do you pay

You can either pay for your policy in full or by instalments. If you pay by instalments you must make regular payments as detailed under the general cancellation condition.

Where are you covered

- Your organisation is located in the Republic of Ireland.
- Your contents whilst in your premises and in certain circumstances anywhere in the Republic of Ireland, Northern Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.
- Liability – for claims arising from your organisation and activities conducted from your premises and elsewhere in the Republic of Ireland, Northern Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Excess

Most cover sections will carry an 'excess' being the first amount of any claim or event, that you are responsible for. The excess applicable will be shown in your schedule.

You may be able to obtain a premium discount if you choose to increase your excess. Please contact us or your broker to discuss any changes.

Limits

Your cover is subject to an overall limit of indemnity, as well as various limits and sub-limits of indemnity which form part of and are not in addition to the overall limit of indemnity unless stated otherwise. Please refer to your policy schedule and policy wording for confirmation of the applicable limits.

Cancellation rights

You have a right to cancel the policy within 14 working days of receiving your policy documents. This is shown in your policy under the heading "Cancellation" in the General Conditions. This General Condition also explains your right to cancel outside of the cooling off period and our right to cancel your policy under certain circumstances.

General and Security conditions

The following conditions apply to the policy (please refer to the individual sections of cover regarding significant or unusual exclusions/limitations that apply to each section):

- You must advise as soon as is reasonably possible of any alteration of risk which increases the risk of damage, accident or liability including structural alterations or repairs above €150,000 at the premises and any material change in the use of the premises.
- For damage at or to the premises caused by theft or attempted theft it is a condition that all locks, bolts and other protective devices fitted to the premises must be put into full use whenever the premises are not attended by you or an authorised person. If the premises are partially used for residential purposes, the business portion must be secured as outlined outside of normal working hours, and the residential portion when unattended by you or an authorised person.
- Where any premises is protected by an automatic fire alarm installation, you will maintain the installation in full and efficient working order at all times, including a maintenance and testing arrangement with approved engineers, advise of changes to the installation and notify us of any disconnection, failure or reduced level of response.
- Where any premises is protected by an intruder alarm system you will ensure it is installed in accordance with the specification and advise us of any proposed changes, maintain the system in full and efficient working order at all times and service under a maintenance contract including appropriate testing, and notify us of any disconnection, failure or reduced level of response.
- When an incident occurs you must tell us as soon as you become aware. You must also not make or allow to be made on your behalf any admission, offer, promise, payment or indemnity without our written consent.

Please refer to the General conditions and Claims conditions sections of the policy for full details of these conditions and other policy conditions that apply.

Property damage

What is covered

This section provides 'All Risks' cover for buildings with the option to insure for subsidence. You can also add cover for items such as contents, boats (<9m in length or manually propelled) and personal possessions.

'All risks' means damage to insured items by any cause not specifically excluded from this section.

How much you will be insured for

The buildings and any other items insured, such as contents, will be covered up to the sums insured provided by you. You may choose the 'Day One' method of inflation protection for your buildings, which provides you with a specified percentage uplift of the sums insured. This is especially relevant if your buildings may take an extended period of time to re-build because of planning or other issues.

How we settle claims

Unless we have agreed otherwise and where the sum insured allows, we will settle claims as follows:

For damage to the building we will rebuild, repair or reinstate the property damaged to a condition equivalent or substantially the same as its condition when new.

For claims in respect of contents and other items we will pay for repairs if these can be carried out economically otherwise we will pay for replacement as new in most circumstances.

Key extensions

This section is extended to include (for the standard limit specified or otherwise the Property damage sum insured):

- Deterioration of refrigerated stock following the failure of the unit, electricity or gas supply - €7,500 for contents of any unit and €25,000 in any one period of insurance.
- All risks cover for contents and personal belongings whilst on an organised educational trip anywhere in the world - €7,500 any one item and €30,000 for any one claim.
- Temporary accommodation for you and your staff (including family members who permanently resides at the property) in respect of any private dwelling house at the premises that is made uninhabitable following damage covered by the policy – 20% of the buildings sum insured in any one period of insurance.
- Contract works extension to provide you with cover for your insurance obligations - €250,000 any one project for the new works and site materials.
- The on-site costs of any archaeological exercise required to obtain information which would otherwise be lost, or in danger of being lost as a result of damage to the buildings by any cause not excluded by the policy - €375,000 any one claim.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 1 Property damage within the policy document for full details.

- Wear and tear or any gradually operating causes.
- Erasure, loss, distortion or corruption of information on computer systems or other records, programs or software.
- In respect of our buildings definition, the following are excluded: bridges, dams, land piers, jetties, culverts, excavations and marquees.

Are there any limitations

Please refer to Section 1 Property damage and General definitions within the policy document for full details.

- If a building becomes unoccupied for a period exceeding 60 consecutive days (other than in connection with the usual education holiday calendar) cover caused by malicious persons, theft, escape of oil or escape of water will be excluded. We may, at our option, amend these terms and conditions and/or charge an additional premium.

- The following limits apply:

External items and fixtures, such as but not limited to signs, garden ornaments, statues and bridges etc	€25,000 in any one period of insurance
Grounds person's equipment	€30,000 in any one period of insurance
Computer systems records	5% of the contents sum insured any one claim
Prints, rare books and art	€7,500 any one item
Jewellery, precious metals or stones and furs	€1,500 any one item
Personal belongings whilst at the insured premises of:	Limits are per person:
- directors, trustees, officials, partners and employees	€3,000 (€1,000 in respect of pedal cycles)
- visitors	€750
- students	€750
Personal money of directors, trustees, officials, partners, employees, visitors and students, whilst at the insured premises	€150 per person

Wind turbines less than 10kW generating capacity, solar panels less than 50kW generating capacity, photovoltaic panels less than 50kW generating capacity	€25,000 in any one period of insurance

What are your obligations

You must tell us as soon as reasonably possible if:

- The use of the building ceases and the building becomes vacant for a period exceeding 60 consecutive days, other than in connection with the usual education holiday calendar.
- There is a change to your activities, as it may impact the cover within the policy.
- You are planning building work where the contract value is in excess of €150,000 or if the works involve the use of external scaffolding.

Things for you to think about

If any of the following apply please contact us or your broker:

- Should you have concerns that your sums insured are insufficient to meet your needs.
- If you have requirements outside of the standard policy cover or the standard basis of settlement.
- If you require any optional covers, e.g. subsidence or fine art

Fine art and collections

What is covered

You may own items where claims settlement based on a replacement with a modern equivalent would not reflect their antique or artistic value. This section provides cover for loss or damage to these special items on either an agreed value or market value basis and any resultant depreciation.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to include (for the limit specified or otherwise the sum insured):

- The cost of defence or payment of damages if an item covered has defective title. If you have to relinquish possession of the item we will pay the amount you paid for it – €600,000 (including legal costs) for all claims in any one period of insurance.
- The cost of repair and any reduction in value if an item is damaged by a professional restorer.
- Cover is provided for items whilst temporarily removed from your premises shown in your policy schedule and in transit – €6,000,000 or the sum insured (whichever is lower) in respect of art and €22,500 in any one period of insurance in respect of jewellery, watches or furs.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 2 Fine art and collections and General definitions within the policy document for full details.

- Dishonesty of any of your directors, trustees, employees or volunteers.
- Property not adequately packed during transit.
- Items in the open unless we agree otherwise.
- Damage whilst the items are in any building which is unoccupied.
- Natural ageing, gradual deterioration, rust or humidity exposure.

What are your obligations

- When items are transported you must ensure that the property is securely and adequately packed during transit.
- In respect of any art that is on loan the value should be agreed between you and the owner before the loan is accepted.

Equipment breakdown

This section is automatically included when property damage cover is in force.

What is covered

The repair or replacement of equipment, which suffers mechanical or electrical breakdown. Examples include organs, lifts, heating, air conditioning, theatre safety curtains, office equipment, computer equipment and audio visual equipment.

How much will you be insured for

The total amount we will pay shall not exceed €7,500,000 in any one period of insurance. Within this amount the following limits apply:

- €650,000 for any one accident to computer equipment at the premises.
- €6,500 for any one accident to portable computer equipment anywhere in the world.

All accidents that are a result of the same event will be considered as one accident.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to cover (for the limit specified or otherwise the maximum limit of indemnity):

- Costs to reinstate data that is lost or damaged following an accident to the computer equipment or costs to avoid interruption of your computer operation - €75,000 any one accident.
- Hire charges incurred for a substitute item during the period of repair for the insured equipment - €13,000 any one accident.
- We will pay for costs following an accident to the equipment insured that results in the business being interrupted or interfered with. Our limit shall not exceed the sum insured in any one claim and €130,000 in any one period of insurance.
- Damage to the property at the premises following an explosion or collapse of the insured equipment which operates under steam pressure – €2,000,000 any one accident.
- Costs relating to repair, investigations and tests by engineers for damages to covered equipment following an accident - €32,500 any one accident.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 3 Equipment breakdown within the policy document for full details.

- Any equipment manufactured by you for sale.
- Any loss or damage caused by a cyber related incident.
- Gradual deterioration or wear and tear.
- Damage which is covered under a maintenance agreement, warranty or guarantee.
- Biomass and Biogas installations, or hydroelectric installations
- Any electricity generating equipment other than emergency back-up power or wind turbines less than 10kW or photovoltaic equipment less than 50kW.
- Any electronic equipment used for research, treatment or other medical or scientific purposes where the replacement value is in excess of €45,000.
- Self-propelled plant and equipment.

What are your obligations

- To maintain a minimum of 2 generations* of verified back-up computer records taken at intervals no less frequently than 48 hours and take all reasonable precautions to store and maintain these records.

 Generations - This term is used to describe a system of data backup. You are required to make a full copy of every file on the computer or network. Two copies are required every 48 hours. The first copy is made and stored, and then the second copy is made and stored separately. During the next 48 hours, the next copy to be made and stored will replace/overwrite the oldest copy. This process continues, always overwriting the oldest copy. Two backups are always stored before the oldest is overwritten.*

Business interruption

What is covered

This section can provide cover for loss of revenue including additional costs incurred to reduce the loss of revenue of your organisation following damage insured under the Property damage section.

Alternatively, (or in addition to loss of revenue) cover can be provided for increased costs you incur to continue with your activities, such as hiring alternative premises. Other basis of settlement can be provided, such as loss of rent or gross profit to suit you. Please speak to us or your broker for more details.

Cover is provided for a specified period known as the indemnity period – this is the length of time, starting with the date the loss occurred over which we will pay for this cover (up to the sum insured) as a result of loss or damage to your property.

How much will you be insured for

The organisation will be covered up to the sums insured provided by you.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to cover loss (for the limit specified or otherwise the sum insured) resulting from the interruption of your activities due to:

Access to your premises being prevented following damage to neighbouring property	The sum insured
Accidental failure of the supply to your premises in respect of electricity, gas, water or telecommunications	€50,000 any one incident
Prevention of access over 4 hours due to an emergency endangering human life	€25,000 any one period of insurance maximum three month indemnity
Damage at premises, other than your own, where you are holding or participating in an event	€15,000 any one incident
Teacher Suspension Costs – wages paid to temporary employees hired solely to replace members of staff who have been suspended during an abuse investigation	€10,000 any one period of insurance
Archaeological Digs - The additional amount of loss following increased interference or interruption due to an archaeological exercise which follows discoveries made, due to the occurrence of the damage.	10% of the sum insured, maximum €750,000

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 4 Business interruption within the policy document for full details.

- Loss following damage where property damage covering your interest in the property at the premises is not in force.

What are your obligations

- Where you choose to insure on a declaration basis you must supply us at each renewal with the estimated gross profit, estimated revenue or estimated rent receivable for the financial year.

Things for you to think about

If any of the following apply, please contact us or your broker to review:

- You have concerns that your sums insured are insufficient to meet your needs.
- You need guidance in calculating the length of time (indemnity period) to get your activities back to normal – this is critical to ensure the cover meets your needs.
- You have requirements outside of the standard policy extensions.

Money with assault extension

What is covered

This section provides cover for loss of money and has the optional cover for assault as a result of an actual or attempted robbery or hold-up.

- Employees and volunteers are not covered whilst travelling, in connection with the business, to a destination to which the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade have advised against all or all but essential travel before the trip.

Things for you to think about

- Making sure that your limits are sufficient to meet your needs, if you would like to change your limits please contact us or your broker.
- Please ask us or your broker if you are in any doubt about an activity and we will be able to advise if the personal accident cover will be operative.

Liabilities

Employers' Liability

What is covered

Employers Liability cover provides an indemnity to you for your legal liability to pay damages to your employees and volunteers following injury in the workplace during the period of insurance, as described in your policy schedule.

The standard limit is €13,000,000 including costs and expenses, any one event.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 7 Liabilities within the policy document for full details.

- Injury arising from or caused by a motor vehicle in circumstances where compulsory insurance is required by any road traffic legislation.

Public and products liability

What is covered

Public and products liability cover provides an indemnity to you for your legal liability to pay damages to third parties (not employees) for injury or damage to their property which occurs during the period of insurance and in connection with your business, as described in your policy schedule.

The standard policy limit is €6,500,000, higher limits are available. Other than for claims brought in the legal jurisdiction of the United States of America or Canada we will pay costs and expenses in addition to this limit.

For claims arising from your activities the standard limit applies to any one event. For products you supply, or for claims arising from pollution or contamination, the standard limit applies to any one period of insurance.

Key extensions

The cover provided by this section is extended to cover (for the limit specified or otherwise the limit of indemnity):

- Legal liability arising from the use by your employee of a motor vehicle that does not belong to you, on your organisation's business if cover is not provided elsewhere.

- Adverse publicity resulting from intentional or malicious act by a trustee, director or partner.
- Criminal or intentional libel, slander or infringement.
- Fine, penalties or multiplied damages.
- Recall of any goods or products manufactured, sold, supplied or installed by you.

What are your obligations

- You must take all reasonable measures to avoid or mitigate adverse publicity.

Hirers' liability

What is covered

Hirers' liability covers third parties who hire out your premises. Should an event occur which leads to paying damages to a member of the public for injury or damage to property, hirers' liability will cover the third party's legal liability.

How much will you be insured for

The organisation will be covered up to a limit chosen by you, a range of limits are available and will include legal costs. The limit applies to any one event or all events happening during the period of insurance caused by products.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 9 Hirers' liability within the policy document for full details.

- Liability arising from food or drink supplied by a professional caterer.
- Liability arising out of the use of bouncy castles or other inflatables, fly walls, bungee equipment or any other similar activity equipment.
- Liability arising from bonfires and fireworks.
- Liability arising from organised sports activities.
- Liability arising out of the use of the premises for any political or lobbying groups/meetings or business activities by commercial organisations.

What are your obligations

- You must ensure that where your premises are used for activities (other than private functions) involving children or vulnerable adults, the hirer has a protection (safeguarding) policy in force and written confirmation of this is obtained before entering into a contract.

Legal Expenses

Note: to ensure an expert service the cover under this section has been arranged through ARAG Legal Protection Limited (ARAG). We are responsible for paying any claims under this section but ARAG manage all claim matters and correspondence on our behalf. Claims are usually handled by an appointed representative appointed by ARAG. Claims outside of the Republic of Ireland may be dealt with by ARAG Offices elsewhere in Europe.

What is covered

Legal expenses cover for a range of legal issues that may arise, up to a limit you choose of either €250,000 or €500,000 for legal costs and expenses including solicitors' and barristers' fees, court costs, expenses for expert witnesses, attendance expenses, accountants' fees and employment compensation awards (the compensation award is further limited to €1,500,000 limit in total for all such awards in any one period of insurance).

Cover is provided for the following:

- Employment practices legal protection and employment financial compensation awards
- Legal defence
- Property protection and Personal injury
- Tax protection

In civil cases, cover is subject to a "reasonable prospects of success" clause. Reasonable prospects is a 51% or greater chance of success, as assessed by a law firm or tax expert chosen by ARAG. The standard cover does not apply this clause to employment practices legal protection and employment financial compensation awards, and it also does not apply to legal defence.

Are there any limitations

Please refer to Section 13 Legal expenses within the policy document for full details.

The following limits of indemnity apply:

- Judicial review cover (included under the employment practices legal protection and employment financial compensation awards cover) - €65,000 any one event.
- Pupil exclusion appeals cover (included under the legal defence cover) - €65,000 any one event.

What is not covered

Please refer to Section 13 Legal expenses within the policy document for full details.

- Any claims where you are bankrupt or become bankrupt at the start or during a claim are excluded.
- The appointment of your own legal representative without prior agreement from ARAG. In certain circumstances (with ARAG's prior agreement) you may be free to appoint your own legal representative, who will be subject to the ARAG standard terms of appointment. This includes an hourly rate not exceeding €150 per hour. Any costs that fall outside the standard terms will not be paid by us.
- Problems that do not relate to your business activities.
- Any claim reported more than 180 days after the date you should have known about the insured event.
- Any legal action the insured has taken where ARAG or the appointed representative have not agreed to or any action that hinders ARAG or the appointed representative.

What are your obligations

- You must let ARAG know about any problems straight away or they may not provide cover if you have tried to deal with matters on your own.

Things for you to think about

Commercial legal advice helpline – ARAG can provide legal advice on any commercial legal problem affecting the business, under the laws of the Republic of Ireland, any European Union country, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, Switzerland and Norway. The Insurance Compensation Fund

This was established under the Insurance Act 1964 amended by the Insurance (Amendment) Act 2011. The fund is designed to facilitate payments to policyholders in relation to risks in Ireland where an Irish-authorized non-life insurer or a non-life insurer authorized in another EU Member State goes into liquidation or administration. Not all policyholder liabilities are covered by the fund. A sum due to a commercial policyholder may not be paid out of the fund unless the sum is due in respect of the liability to an individual.

For further information on the scheme you can visit the website at:
