

We're still here for you!

Although we may not be running as usual due to COVID-19, this church still needs support to continue its work and mission.

Now more than ever, please consider supporting us with a donation.

To support the church with a gift or to find out more information please visit or call

Thank you for your support.

We recognise that not everybody will be able to respond at what is a challenging and uncertain financial time for many. We're grateful for all donations received.

